1. Introduction

The scope of this scheme is to assist hospitality and catering establishments engaging a chef to support in capacity building, innovation, and in the development the operations. Undertakings (including self-employed operators) will be supported through a tax credit representing a percentage of the eligible expenditure and wages of the international experienced chefs.

1.1 Duration of the Incentive

This measure shall be available until 31st December 2018.

Malta Enterprise may periodically update and amend these Incentive Guidelines. In any case, the applicable Incentive Guidelines shall be those published when the request for assistance is received.

1.2 Legal Basis

Malta Enterprise Corporation may issue and publish update to the official Incentive Guidelines covering this aid scheme in terms of Article 8 (3)(a) of the Malta Enterprise Act, Chapter 463 of the Laws of Malta.

Legal Notice 167 of 2017 forms the national legal basis of this aid scheme.

1.3 Designated Authority

This incentive is administered by Malta Enterprise Corporation (hereinafter referred to as 'the Corporation').

1.4 Budget

This measure has a budget of EUR 250,000 annually.

2. Definitions

2.1 Incentive Entitlement Certificate (IEC)

An Incentive Entitlement Certificate (IEC) means a certificate issued in terms of Part VI of the Malta Enterprise Act, outlining the support granted and including any relative terms and conditions.

The Corporation shall have the right to revoke any IEC and recover any aid granted if the applicant breaches:

- a. the parameters set in the applicable Incentive Guidelines or in the applicable State Aid regulations;
- b. any conditions set in the IEC.

2.2 Catering Establishments

As per Chapter 409 in the Malta Travel and Tourism Services Act, catering establishments refer to any building, premises or other establishment, including kiosks, purveying for reward food and, or, beverages including wines and spirits, for consumption.

2.3 Single Undertaking

For the purpose of these Incentive Guidelines, the term 'single undertaking' shall be defined as follows:

As per Commission Regulation EU No 1407/2013 of 18 December 2013 on the application of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union to de minimis aid, a 'single undertaking' includes all undertakings having at least one (1) of the following relationships with each other:

- i. one undertaking has a majority of the shareholders' or members' voting rights in another undertaking;
- ii. one undertaking has the right to appoint or remove a majority of the members of the administrative, management or supervisory body of another undertaking;
- iii. one undertaking has the right to exercise a dominant influence over another undertaking pursuant to a contract entered into with that undertaking or to a provision in its memorandum or articles of association;
- iv. one undertaking, which is a shareholder in or member of another undertaking, controls alone, pursuant to an agreement with other shareholders in or members of that undertaking, a majority of shareholders' or members' voting rights in that undertaking.

Undertakings having any of the relationships referred to in points (i) to (iv) of the first subparagraph through one or more other undertakings shall also be considered to be a single undertaking.

The same regulation states that a group of linked undertakings is considered as one single undertaking for the application of the de minimis rule, but those undertakings which have no relationship with each other except for the fact that each of them has a direct link to the same public body or bodies are not treated as being linked to each other. The specific situation of undertakings controlled by the same public body or bodies, which may have an independent power of decision, is therefore taken into account.

2.4 Respected restaurant guide

A respected restaurant guide shall refer to Michelin Guide book, Gambero Rosso, The World's 50 Best Restaurants, Gault&Millau, AA or any other industry respected restaurant guide considered equivalent to those mentioned. This needs to be substantiated and presented to the selection board.

4. Maximum Aid and Applicable Aid Intensity

4.1 Form of Aid

Assistance will be provided in a form of tax credit.

4.2 Maximum Aid

The Corporation may approve a tax credit of up to €10,000 per undertaking, covering 75% of the eligible costs. The aid may cover two different qualifying engagements which may be between the undertaking and the same qualifying chef.

5. Qualifying Costs

Costs as specified in an agreement between the undertaking and Qualifying Chef (or his/her representative) shall be considered as eligible as long as:

- 1) The agreement clearly specifies that the Qualifying Chef will provide the undertaking with capacity building through: on the job training; menu and menu engineering; and/or a routine contact with the personnel on the job premises.
- 2) Will be in Malta for a period of 10 operational days (not necessarily consecutive) for supporting the undertaking in the agreed tasks.

All cost must be invoiced by the Qualifying Chef (or his/her representative) except for any travel costs which may be invoice to the undertaking by the airline or travel agent providing the service.

6. Application and Assignment of Aid

6.1 Application Process

An application form shall be downloadable from the Corporation's website. Applicants should submit the completed application to the Corporation before 31st December 2018. Applications should be submitted electronically as specified on the application form and should include all annexes.

Applications will be processed on a first-come basis and an incomplete application will be rejected.

6.2 Approval

Applications will be processed by Malta Enterprise, Ministry of Tourism and by the Institute of Tourism Studies (ITS) and will be based on the information included in the application form and the documentation submitted. Primarily the evaluation process will confirm whether the applicant fulfils the conditions set out in these Guidelines yet ITS in their review will consider the value to be gained by the applicant and its potential impact on the growth of the Maltese economy before recommending the award.

Should the application be considered favourably an IEC will be issued by the Corporation.

7. Claim Process

Claims must be submitted on the appropriate claim forms and will only be accepted if all the supporting documentation is received by the Corporation. All incomplete claims will be rejected. The beneficiary will be required to provide:

- 1) proof that the agreement with the qualifying chef was carried out as per contract,
- 2) fiscal document of any costs claimed and proof that such costs were settled.

Malta Enterprise and ITS may furthermore request additional documentation and information which the Corporation may deem relevant to process the claim.

8. Tax Credits

Following a positive review of a claim form the Corporation shall issue a Tax Credit Certificate.

The awarded Tax Credit may be claimed in the tax return in the three years of assessment immediately following the year in which the certificate is issued.

The Tax Credit Certificate may only be used against tax due and may not be used to settle any pending tax payments. The Income Tax Department may refuse to accept the Tax Credit Certificate for any Year of Assessment in which the holder is defaulting on VAT, Income Tax, and Social Security payments.

9. State Aid Rules and Obligations

9.1 Applicable State Aid

These Incentive Guidelines are in line with the Commission Regulation (EU) No. 1407/2013 of 18 December 2013 on the application of Articles 107 and 108 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union to de minimis aid (the de minimis Regulation)².

The total amount of de minimis aid granted to a single undertaking shall not exceed the amount of €200,000 over any period of three consecutive fiscal years.

This aggregate maximum threshold applies in principle to all economic sectors with the exception of the road transport, agriculture and fisheries sectors for which different thresholds and criteria apply. The term 'undertaking' includes also all companies in a group (which fall under the direct or indirect ownership or control of the same ultimate parent company) and relevant partner and linked enterprises as defined in Annex I of Commission Regulation (EC No 651/2014). This period covers the fiscal year concerned as well as the previous two fiscal years. 'Fiscal year' means the fiscal year as used for tax purposes by the undertaking concerned.

This maximum threshold would include all State aid granted under this aid scheme and any other State aid measure granted under the de minimis rule including that received from any entity other than Malta Enterprise. Any de minimis aid received in excess of the established threshold will have to be recovered, with interest, from the undertaking receiving the aid.

The de minimis declaration form³ must be filled in and submitted together with the application form.

9.2 Applicability of the Aid

Assistance approved under this aid scheme is NOT:

- a. Aid granted to undertakings active in the fishery and aquaculture sector, as covered by Council Regulation (EC) No. 104/2000⁴;
- b. Aid granted to undertakings active in the primary production of agricultural products;
- c. Aid granted to undertakings active in the sector of processing and marketing of agricultural products, in the following cases:
 - i. Where the amount of the aid is fixed on the basis of the price or quantity of such products purchased from primary producers or put on the market by the undertakings concerned;
 - ii. Where the aid is conditional on being partly or entirely passed on to primary producers;
- d. Aid to export-related activities towards third countries or Member States, namely aid directly linked to the quantities exported, to the establishment and operation of a distribution network or to other current expenditure linked to the export activity;
- e. Aid contingent upon the use of domestic over imported goods;
- f. Aid for the acquisition of road freight transport vehicles granted to undertakings performing road freight transport for hire or reward.
- g. Intended for Voluntary Organisations

⁴ Council Regulation (EC) No 104/2000 of 17 December 1999 on the common organisation of the markets in fishery and aquaculture products (OJ L 17, 21.1.2000, p. 22).

Where an undertaking is active in the sectors referred to in points (a), (b) and (c) above as well as in other sectors falling within the scope of the de minimis Regulation, the Corporation will ensure a separation of the activities or distinction of costs. Only those sectors eligible for assistance under the de minimis Regulation will be assisted. Activities in the sectors excluded from the scope of the de minimis Regulation will not benefit from assistance under this aid scheme.

9.3 Cumulation

In terms of Article 5 of the de minimis Regulation, de minimis aid granted under this incentive may be cumulated with de minimis aid granted in accordance with Commission Regulation (EU) No 360/2012⁵ up to the ceiling laid down in that Regulation. It may be cumulated with de minimis aid granted in accordance with other de minimis regulations up to the relevant ceiling fixed in terms of these Incentive Guidelines.

De minimis aid approved under the Catering Capacity Building shall not be cumulated with State aid in relation to the same eligible costs or with State aid for the same risk finance measure, if such cumulation would exceed the highest relevant aid intensity or aid amount fixed in the specific circumstances of each case by a block exemption regulation or a decision adopted by the European Commission. De minimis aid which is not granted for or attributable to specific eligible costs may be cumulated with other State aid granted under a block exemption regulation or a decision adopted by the Commission.

⁵ Commission Regulation (EU) No 360/2012 of 25 April 2012 on the application of Articles 107 and 108 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union to de minimis aid granted to undertakings providing services of general economic interest (OJ L 114, 26.4.2012, p. 8).
